

STUDY GUIDES

Training Bulletin # 76, Company Operations

1. There must be _____ individuals on-scene at an incident to initiate the two in/two out rule application.
Pg. 1
2. What does IDLH refer to regarding the two in/ two out rule?
Pg. 1
3. How many of the backup personnel on an Engine company may be engaged in other duties.
Pg. 1
4. What is the exception to the two in two out rule when less than four members are on scene?
Pg. 2
5. In question #4, if the exception is taken, what is required after the incident?
Pg. 2
6. A rapid intervention crew shall consist of at least _____ members.
Pg. 2
7. Can personnel dedicated to rapid intervention be given another assignment?
Pg. 2
8. Can an engineer who is supplying water to multiple fire attack hose lines inside the IDLH atmosphere be considered a standby member?
Pg. 3
9. On a high rise incident, what is the minimum number of members required for a fire attack team?
Pg. 3
10. How many members of a high rise attack team are designated as standby members?
Pg. 3

STUDY GUIDES

11. At brush fires where two members shall be used as fire attack into a structure, how many members shall be standby?
Pg. 3
12. The Department Incident Commander's shall as a minimum designate at least how many rapid interventions Companies upon arrival?
Pg. 3
13. What is the key component for firefighter accountability?
Pg. 3
14. What does NFPA 1561 refer to?
Pg. 5
15. What are the ways an Incident Commander may pass command?
Pg. 6
16. The key to deciding whether to assume command or immediately Commit to a tactical objective is governed by what factors?
Pg. 7
17. No roof cutting operations shall be performed without the presence of a _____.
Pg. 8a
18. Regarding the minimum responsibilities of the Safety roof member, name 4 considerations.
Pg. 8a
19. What are the responsibilities of the Hydrant member of an Engine co. first on scene?
Pg. 11
20. When first on-scene, a light force will normally initiate _____ operations.
Pg. 12

STUDY GUIDES

Page 3

21. On structure fire incidents with nothing showing, what are the responsibilities of a (Top) firefighter of a first on-scene Light force with 5 members?
Pg. 13

22. Under NORMAL OPERATIONS, what are the responsibilities of a (Top) firefighter with a 5 member first-in Light Force and fire or smoke showing?

Pg. 14

23. On a REPORTED FIRE in a High Rise, what tool options does the (Tiller) Firefighter have of a 5 member Light Force?

Pg. 15

24. What is required of the Capt. II on ELEVATOR incidents with a 5-member Light Force first on-scene?

Pg. 16

25. What responsibilities does the Engineer of a 5 member first in Light Force have on a PHYSICAL RESCUE?

Pg. 17

26. What are the responsibilities of the Wagon Engineer on a 9-member first in Task Force on a reported fire in a High Rise?

Pg. 20

27. What are the responsibilities of the Wagon Engineer on a 9-member first in Task Force to a Physical Rescue incident?

Pg. 21

27. 800 series RAs at and emergency incident have a dual role which is _____ and _____?

Pg. 24

28. Fire suppression certified members assigned to a 800 series RA shall be donning what items prior to entering an IDLH atmosphere.

Pg. 24

STUDY GUIDES

Page 4

29. 800 series personnel when assigned to emergency activities other than EMS standby shall always _____.

Pg. 24

30. The Incident Commander shall maintain resource status of the 800 Series RA at all times utilizing the _____ or _____.

Pg. 24

31. On the F-666, the resource responsible for the accountability of a specific 800 Series RA will be _____.

Pg. 25

32. When the re-assignment for accountability of a specific 800 Series RA changes, an _____ shall be drawn over the previous assigned resource, and the new responsible resource shall be listed and _____ after verification.

Pg. 25