

STUDY GUIDES

Training Bulletin # 77, Live Fire Training

1. What are the two ways that Live Fire training evolutions can be conducted?
Pg. 1
2. Planning activities shall be coordinated through _____ with approval from _____.
Pg. 2
3. For approval of recruit training sessions, the approving authority shall be _____.
Pg. 2
4. When must the SCAQMD be notified prior to Live Fire Training Evolutions?
Pg. 2
5. On Live Fire Training evolutions, hand lines shall be capable of delivering a minimum of _____gpm.
Pg. 3
6. On Live Fire Training, Crew or company size shall not exceed _____members including officers.
Pg. 3
7. What shall follow the IGNITION OFFICER who is responsible for controlling the materials being burned?
Pg. 3
8. Insufficient back-up lines would be reason enough for the SAFETY OFFICER to discontinue Live Fire Training.
Pg. 4
9. Are live victims allowed in the training building during Live Fire Training?
Pg. 4
10. Damage of a Training Center should be documented prior to Live Fire Training.
Pg. 5

STUDY GUIDES

TB #77, pg. 2

11. Prior to conducting any Live Fire training in a vacant structure, the Training Officer shall receive what four items from the owner?
Pg. 6
12. Where shall the items in question 11 be forwarded for final approval?
Pg. 6
13. What shall be done with the windows in a building prior to Live Fire Training?
Pg. 6
14. Where shall the rehab area be located?
Pg. 8
15. What measures shall be taken with visitors who are allowed within the perimeter to observe?
Pg. 8
16. Which fuels may not be used for a live burn?
Pg. 9
17. Pressure treated wood; rubber and plastic materials may be used for an exercise.
Pg. 9
18. The use of flammable or combustible liquids may be used in live fire training evolutions in structures as long as the fires are kept small.
Pg. 9
19. Under what plan (site plan, burn plan or operational plan) will the medical unit be included on?
Pg. 10
20. The location of the Supply Unit shall be included on which plan?
Pg. 10